

	8: - 8:30	Open Mike
Friday	8:30 - 10 (A)	The Functions of Government	The Tom Johnson Trolley Wars		Richard Biddle can serve in a pinch, but is reluctant.
			Contract Patronage and Civil Service	??	Speaker needed: The corrupt patronage that the progressives fought was not employee patronage, but contract patronage. That patronage is coming back under the euphemism of privatization.
			Selling and Leasing our Future	??	This is about privatizing turnpikes, muny light, trolleys, water systems, etc.
			What Should Be Private?	Fred Foldvary	?? Incidentally, Foldvary's view of what should be private is just about everything. We need a less libertarian Georgist to offset Foldvary.
Friday	8:30-10 (B)		The Secret Life of Real Estate	Phil Anderson	Could be moved to one of the other open (B) slots
Friday	10:30 - Noon (A)	The State of the Economy	Barack Obama's Economic Policies	Walt Rybeck
				Andrew Mazzone	Need to contact for precise title
			Michigan following California's folley	Mason Gaffney	I am getting more detail from Mason
Friday	10:30 - Noon (B)	??	??	??	Nobody can draw opposite Walt and Mason.
Friday	Noon - 1:30	Lunch	Cleveland's Assessment history	Bill Barrow	knows Cleveland history and has a special interest in real estate history and assessment procedures. Among the interesting items were some of the periodic assessment books listing all properties and distributed free to all taxpayers.
Friday	1:30 - 3 (A)	Building Classically Progressive Alliances	Georgist perspective		Should be someone who has worked with both business and labor people. Josh and Walt come to mind.
			Labor Perspective	Debbie Kline
			Business Perspective	Lincoln Electric?	Ed is checking on this. Mazzone might also be a good choice.
Friday	1:30 - 3 (B)				Something purely theoretical could go here.
Friday	3 - 3:30	Break
Friday	3:30 - 5 (A)	Roundtable Discussion on marketing	Moderator	Alanna Hartzok	From discussions with Alanna, this seems to be about getting out of ideological mode and into professional marketing mode. Non Georgist Clevelanders who have marketing success would be most helpful.
				One other Georgist
				Debbie Kline	I will ask Debbie Kline to participate in this, and also to recommend people from Cleveland who would have expertise.
				One other local
Friday	3:30 - 5 (B)				What should go here?
Friday	5 - 5:30
	Friday Comments				The first session is important, as it is central to Johnson's participation, but we don't have good speakers for it. We have open slots, but they are oppoxite tough competition. We also have not done "Toastmaster Style Speeches," which were popular in past years. I don't want to put Phil and Steve in the only concurrent slots. I'm thinking we should have more concurrents or no concurrents, but we are filled beyond no concurrents.
